

Diocese of Wakefield

Priest in Charge of St John, Lepton

The Bishop of Wakefield wishes to appoint a creative, prayerful and mission-minded priest for Lepton, near Huddersfield. The congregation has a clear but flexible evangelical tradition, with a variety of worship styles. The church building is re-ordered, well-maintained and well-used by church and non-church groups.

The person appointed will:

- Be a sensitive leader, with good communication and preaching skills.
- Have an enthusiasm for work with children and families, including through schools.
- Be supportive of lay involvement and collaborative ministry.
- Help people grow deeper in their knowledge, love and faith in Christ, expressing this growth through mission, service and evangelism.
- Develop supportive links with the neighbouring cluster of parishes, and willing to be involved with Kirkheaton parish for one day a week (or equivalent).

Profile and application from www.wakefield.anglican.org/jobs. Information from the Archdeacon of Halifax (01484 714553 or archdeacon.halifax@wakefield.anglican.org). Closing date 13 April 2008. Interviews Thursday 29 May.

Re-advertisement: previous applicants should not apply.

Subject to enhanced CRB disclosure.