

Margaret Kirkham

Margaret lives in Scissett with her husband Brian, who is also a Diocesan Evangelist. Margaret retired from her work as a Primary Schoolteacher, has three grown-up children and is Churchwarden of St. Augustine's in Scissett and co-leader of the Children's Programme there.

Margaret has a real heart for children, young people and their families. She enjoys School Assemblies, Activity Days, Holiday Clubs, etc, and being part of Missions.